EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Ms. Marisa J. Dubuc on November 4 and 5, 2004.

The application has been amended as follows:

a. Replace claims 16, 18 and 26 with the following:

16. A method for managing a distributed transaction comprising one or more transaction flows between respective pairs of nodes in a network of interconnected nodes, each of said transaction flows being accompanied by an originating node identifier identifying the originating node, said method being performed by one of said nodes as a local node and comprising the steps of:

maintaining a registry comprising zero or more entries corresponding to inbound flows from other nodes, each of said entries containing the originating node identifier accompanying the corresponding inbound flow and a local node identifier identifying the local node, said local node identifier being used to identify the local node in outbound transaction flows to other nodes resulting from said inbound flow; upon receiving an inbound flow from another node, determining whether there is an entry in said registry for the originating node identifier accompanying said inbound flow;

if there is no entry for said originating node identifier and there is no entry for another inbound flow for the same transaction, creating an entry in said registry containing said originating node identifier and a local node identifier identifying the local node; and if there is an entry for another inbound flow for the same transaction, creating an entry in said registry containing the originating node identifier accompanying said inbound flow and a local node qualifier identifying the local node that is different from any other local node identifier in said registry for that transaction.

18. A method for providing a path-sensitive branch registry for cyclic distributed transactions, comprising:

receiving a flow from a superior node in a cyclic distributed transaction tree, the flow including a global tree identification and a branch qualifier;

for each subordinate node in the transaction tree:

searching a registry of the subordinate node for the global tree identification and the branch qualifier;

if there is no entry for said global tree identification and there is no entry for another inbound flow for the same transaction, creating an entry in said registry containing said global tree identification and a branch qualifier identifying the subordinate node; and if there is an entry for another inbound flow for the same transaction, creating an entry in said registry containing the global tree identification accompanying said inbound flow and a branch qualifier identifying the subordinate node that is different from any other branch qualifier in said registry for that transaction.

26. A system for utilizing a path-sensitive branch registry for cyclic distributed transactions, the system comprising:

a plurality of nodes in a cyclic distribution tree, the plurality of nodes include a superior node and subordinate nodes;

a flow initiated by the superior node and received by a first of the subordinate nodes, the flow including a global tree identification and a branch qualifier;

wherein for each subordinate node in the transaction tree:

a registry of the subordinate node is searched for the global tree identification and the branch qualifier;

if there is no entry for said global tree identification and there is no entry for another inbound flow for the same transaction, an entry is created in said registry containing said global tree identification and a branch qualifier identifying the subordinate node; and if there is an entry for another inbound flow for the same transaction, an entry is created in said registry containing the global tree identification accompanying said inbound flow and a branch qualifier identifying the subordinate node that is different from any other branch qualifier in said registry for that transaction.
